

COLIN MATHURA- JEFFREE

Location: Auckland | Height: 182 cm

Hair Colour: Black | Eye Colour: Brown | Hair Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: European | Eye Colour: Hazel |

Ethnicity: Indian

Colin Mathura-Jeffree, prominent New Zealand personality, combines a rich multicultural background with a wealth of experience in the fashion and entertainment sectors, making him a distinguished figure for corporate speaking engagements and event hosting.

Born in Auckland, New Zealand, Colin Mathura-Jeffree is of European and Indian descent. His unique cultural heritage has equipped him with the insights and adaptability required to connect with diverse audiences, making him a valuable asset for international and multicultural events.

Colin embarked on his professional journey in the fashion industry, working with high-profile brands such as Versace and Jean Paul Gaultier. His international modelling experience has not only polished his public persona but also provided him with a global perspective, enhancing his appeal as a brand ambassador.

Transitioning from modelling to media, Colin gained nationwide popularity through his roles on "New Zealand's Next Top Model" and "New Zealand's Hottest Home Baker." His approachable yet authoritative screen presence has proven effective in both engaging and retaining audience interest, which is crucial for live event success.

Colin's acting portfolio includes significant roles in both local and international productions, such as the Bollywood film "Love Has No Language" and "Xena: Warrior Princess." These roles have honed his storytelling abilities, enabling him to deliver compelling narratives and presentations at corporate events.

As a committed advocate for charitable causes, Colin has worked with organizations like The Railway Children and Alzheimers New Zealand. His dedication to these causes reflects a depth of character and integrity that resonates well with corporate audiences, enhancing the impact of his engagements.

Colin has been acknowledged extensively for his contributions to fashion and media, including accolades such as New Zealand's sexiest man and a REMIX Magazine Icon. These accolades highlight his influence and credibility, reinforcing his suitability for high-profile corporate speaking roles.

Colin Mathura-Jeffree is an exemplary professional, whose extensive experience and charismatic personality make him an ideal candidate for hosting and speaking roles at corporate events. His ability to articulate and engage, combined with his professional achievements and philanthropic commitments, ensure that he brings both entertainment and inspirational value to any event. Engaging Colin Mathura-Jeffree for your corporate event guarantees a sophisticated and impactful experience for all attendees.

FEATURE FILM

2013	Stars In Her Eyes	Role: Sanj	Ample Films - Director: Athina Tsoulis
2008	Love Has No Language	Role: Sixth Reddy	Pan Pacific Pictures - Director: Ken Khan
2007	Reckless Behavior: Caught on Tape	Role: Raviphama	Director: Donald Wrye

TELEVISION

2021	My Life is Murder	Role: Haj X	Greenstone Pictures - Director: Various
2007	Rude Awakenings	Role: Man with Palm	TVNZ - Director: Various
1999	Xena: Warrior Princess	Role: Shakti	Universal Television - Director: Various

SKILLS

Accents	Indian
Dance	Ballroom
Other	Voiceovers
Sports	Horse Riding, Martial Arts, Swimming

