

ANJULA PRAKASH

Location: Auckland | Height: 164 cm
Hair Colour: Black | Eye Colour: Brown | Ethnicity: Indian

Anjula Prakash is an emerging comedian who brings laughter to open mics about once a week around Auckland. This year, she's been part of some exciting shows, including the Asian Comedy Takeover at the International Comedy Festival, a wild night at Whammy Bar for Muckaround, an immigrant-themed gig at MoveSpace called Immhahagrants, and a fun set in Hamilton at the Nirvara Lounge. With her upcoming show "Mind if I Chime In?" at the Auckland Fringe Festival in September 2024 and a road trip to Whangarei for more comedy in August, she's keeping busy. When she's not on stage, Anjula sharpens her improv skills in a cozy dojo space with a small group of comedians led by James Smith, ensuring she's always ready for whatever punchlines come her way.

AWARDS

2014	Here and There	Runner Up Best Actress at the Short and Sweet Festival
-------------	----------------	--

TELEVISION

2016	Neighbourhood	Role: Host	Satellite TV
-------------	---------------	------------	--------------

THEATRE

2023	Not Woman Enough	Role: Ivy	Proudly Asian Theatre Company
2018	Breathe	Role: 2	Taurima Vibes
2018	Tea	Role: Gowri [supporting]	Oryza Foundations
2017	Ranthanbore	Role: Kabaragoya / Dancer [supporting]	Satellite
2016	ATC Tea Workshop	Role: Gowri [supporting]	Director: Sarah Brodie
2014	Here and There	Role: Mina [lead]	Horiwood Productions
2014	Last Chance Café	Role: Jackie	Hobson Street Theatre Company
2014	The Mourning After	Role: Kabaragoya [supporting]	Prayas and Agram
2014	The Not So Merry Christmas Monologues	Role: Jamie	Smackbang Theatre Company

TV COMMERCIAL

2024 - 2025	Chorus	The Yates Family Wife	Saatchi & Saatchi - Producer: Jane Mill Finch - Director: Arundati Thandur
------------------------	--------	-----------------------	---

TRAINING

2016 - 2018	Bachelor of Arts in English and Drama	The University of Auckland
2012 - 2013	Micheal Chekhov Technique	Tutor: Elena Stejko
2010 2009	On Screen Acting [Diploma] Certificate in Screen Acting	South Seas Film & Television Wellington Performing Arts Centre

SKILLS

Accents	English, Indian
Dance	General movement
Instruments	Guitar » Acoustic, Piano » Basic
Singing	Musical Theatre, Vocalist
Sports	Long Boarding, Skateboarding

