

NEPIA TAKUIRA-MITA

Location: Auckland

Nepia Takiura-Mita is an engaging and charismatic presence, bringing a wealth of experience in entertainment and cultural storytelling to every event. Whether on stage, screen, or social media, his ability to connect with diverse audiences makes him a sought-after host, speaker, and performer.

With experience in television (Ahikāroa, Shortland Street) and live performances, Nepia brings professionalism and warmth to any event.

As an actor and presenter, Nepia has built a strong presence in Aotearoa's entertainment industry. His background in television and digital content creation means he understands how to hold an audience's attention, whether it's a live crowd or a streamed broadcast.

Nepia's deep commitment to te reo Māori and kaupapa Māori storytelling makes him an ideal speaker for events that celebrate culture, identity, and inclusion. His work on Te Reo Rangatira highlights his passion for language revitalisation, making him a meaningful voice.

Beyond hosting and speaking, Nepia brings high-energy entertainment to brand activations and public events. His work with Come Vibe With Us has made him a recognised digital personality, allowing him to engage audiences in a fun and interactive way. Whether leading a crowd, performing, or bringing excitement to a brand experience, Nepia delivers impact.
