

SIMON GAULT

Location: Auckland

We are delighted to present Simon Gault, one of New Zealand's most well known chefs, as an exceptional addition to any engagements. As a chef, restaurateur, entrepreneur, and charismatic Kiwi personality, Simon's remarkable journey in the global culinary scene has been nothing short of awe-inspiring.

Throughout his illustrious career, Simon's expertise has traversed continents, leaving an indelible mark at distinguished establishments such as London's Leiths restaurant and the prestigious Michelin-starred Thornbury Castle. His culinary prowess even led him to serve as the personal chef to Simon Fuller and billionaire Oracle CEO, Larry Ellison, a testament to his extraordinary talents.

Simon's professional background as a former Executive Chef of the Nourish Group, renowned for its award-winning restaurants; Euro Bar & Restaurant, FISH, Jervois Steakhouse, and others across New Zealand, speaks volumes about his expertise in managing successful culinary ventures.

His outstanding contributions to the industry have been recognized with multiple accolades, including the New Zealand Restaurant Association Innovator of the Year Award, the Lewisham Awards for Chef of the Year and Outstanding Hospitality Personality of the Year. Moreover, Simon has been inducted into the New Zealand Restaurant Association Hall of Fame and honoured with the Entrepreneur of the Year award by Ernst & Young in the Services Category. Such achievements showcase Simon's ingenuity, innovation, and leadership.

Presently, Simon's culinary vision has expanded with the launch of Gault's Deli. Positioned within the state-of-the-art Kitchen Mania Kitchen, the deli offers an exceptional selection of premium ingredients and cooking essentials. It provides an unparalleled shopping experience, allowing customers to taste before they buy, while also offering various interactive cooking classes for up to 30 participants, making it a fantastic option for corporate team-building events or delightful gatherings with friends.

Beyond his culinary ventures, Simon's business acumen is equally impressive, owning Sous Chef, a fine foods import, distribution, and online food company, as well as his homeware brand, 'Simon Gault Home Cuisine,' available through Briscoes. Moreover, his dedication to health and wellbeing led to the creation of the science-based 4-week health education course, 4 Wheels of Health, which he developed alongside nutritionist Sean Robertson.

Simon's passion for educating and inspiring others is further evident in his television appearances, where he has fronted TVNZ's MasterChef New Zealand and starred in the hit series "Chef on a Mission." Additionally, as the presenter of the acclaimed documentary series 'Why Are We Fat?,' Simon addresses crucial health-related issues, emphasising the significance of eating well and leading a balanced lifestyle.

Simon's unwavering commitment to excellence and his focus on quality ingredients drive all his endeavours, which was later encapsulated in his gastronomic vision Giraffe, at Auckland's viaduct restaurant, which beautifully combines his own produce with the finest offerings from local producers and growers. This dedication extends to Gault's Deli, a haven of gourmet delights sourced from artisan producers worldwide.

More than just a culinary maestro, Simon is a compassionate individual who deeply cares about his customers and the community. He shares his personal journey of transformation, inspiring others to prioritise their health and wellbeing.
